

A Natural History of Suchness

Stephen Ellis

Mexican Cousins

Or how three fingers of the good stuff
In an atmosphere of silver
In the rising sweats of a hot night
Keep possibilities of
Dawn and/or dusk
Rising up and falling
All around the horizon
Circumambulating the bed
As in a hypnologic state
Where the UFOs
That continue down from the north
Look alternately
Like communion wafers
Inspiring ascent to pale purity
Or eyelids painted black
In imitation of and homage to
Deep and pure desire
